

I enjoy XM Radio and feel it should not be stifled by the well heeled establishment media.

Let XM grow in a competitive environment, if it not successful it will perish if it is successful it deserves to survive on its own without government intervention.